THE SPIDER c/w FLIES

FX 302

Distributed by RED RHINO & THE CARTEL

PARTY DAY are back, armed with a Widow's bite in the form of The Spider.

FACT: The Spider is a thorn in the side of Sterility, they know no territorial boundaries.

FACT: Robert the Bruce refused to surrender his cause after watching the spider's persistent nature of survival.

FACT: The spider will survive.

The Spider signals the end of the beginning.

This is PARTY DAY's second single, 'The Spider' is the battle standard that flies high on the hill overlooking apathy. Their first single - 'Row The Boat Ashore' recieved much acclaim and caused ripples through the independent charts in the last weeks of the summer madness.

PARTY DAY have been steadily building up their reputation since their instigation some two years ago, via their consistently high quality performances that has brought entertainment back to the live arena, where, for too long the concert hall had been de-humanised.

Everyone learns from 'The Spider'.
